Values and targets AUSER

Association for self-management of services and sympathy. Promoted by SPI-CGIL. It guarantees the rights, the active aging promotion, the aid to aged and fragile people.

An association of people, a conscious sympathy. We believe in participation, in an active and responsible citizenship and in the role of civic society: our sympathy is practiced with consciousness of “why” is necessary to give help.

Every age: a value; every person: a life’s project.

Inspired by models of social equity, respect and enhancement of differences, with other themes of the Third System and communally with Institutions, we promote the connections between people, sympathy between generations and different cultures, conservation of rights and develop of opportunities.

Aged people: citizen-resource. Through the voluntary service to the person, the civic voluntary service, the permanent education and the activities of social promotion, we create a net of aimed opportunities depending on the context and needs of people, enhancing the role of aged people in the society, affirming the right at domicile and sociability, promoting the active aging culture.
